CONSUMER NOTICE

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

In an effort to enable consumers of real estate services to make informed decisions about the business relationships they may have with real estate brokers and salespersons (licensees), the Real Estate Licensing and Registration Act (RELRA) requires that consumers be provided with this Notice at the initial interview.

- Licensees may enter into the following agency relationships with consumers:

Seller Agent

As a seller agent the licensee and the licensee's company works exclusively for the seller/landlord and must act in the seller's/landlord's best interest, including making a continuous and good faith effort to find a buyer/tenant except while the property is subject to an existing agreement. All confidential information relayed by the seller/landlord must be kept confidential except that a licensee must reveal known material defects about the property. A subagent has the same duties and obligations as the seller agent.

Buyer Agent

As a buyer agent, the licensee and the licensee's company work exclusively for the buyer/tenant even if paid by the seller/landlord. The buyer agent must act in the buyer/tenant's best interest, including making a continuous and good faith effort to find a property for the buyer/tenant, except while the buyer is subject to an existing contract, and must keep all confidential information, other than known material defects about the property, confidential.

Dual Agent

As a dual agent, the licensee works for both the seller/landlord and the buyer/tenant. A dual agent may not take any action that is adverse or detrimental to either party but must disclose known material defects about the property. A licensee must have the written consent of both parties before acting as a dual agent.

Designated Agent

As a designated agent, the broker of the selected real estate company designates certain licensees within the company to act exclusively as the seller/landlord agent and other licensees within the company to act exclusively as the buyer/tenant agent in the transaction. Because the broker supervises all of the licensees, the broker automatically serves as a dual agent. Each of the designated licensees are required to act in the applicable capacity explained previously. Additionally, the broker has the duty to take reasonable steps to assure that confidential information is not disclosed within the company.

- In addition, a licensee may serve as a Transaction Licensee.

A transaction licensee provides real estate services without having any agency relationship with a consumer. Although a transaction licensee has no duty of loyalty or confidentiality, a transaction licensee is prohibited from disclosing that:

- The seller will accept a price less than the asking/listing price,
- The buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in the written offer, and
- The seller or buyer will agree to financing terms other than those offered.

Like licensees in agency relationships, transaction licensees must disclose known material defects about the property.

- Regardless of the business relationship selected, all licensees owe consumers the duty to:
  - Exercise reasonable professional skill and care which meets the practice standards required by the RELRA.
  - Deal honestly and in good faith.
  - Present, as soon as practicable, all written offers, counteroffers, notices and communications to and from the parties. This duty may be waived by the seller where the seller's property is under contract and the waiver is in writing.
  - Comply with the Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law.
  - Account for escrow and deposit funds.
  - Disclose, as soon as practicable, all conflicts of interest and financial interests.
  - Provide assistance with document preparation and advise the consumer regarding compliance with laws pertaining to real estate transactions.
  - Advise the consumer to seek expert advice on matters about the transaction that are beyond the licensee's expertise.
  - Keep the consumer informed about the transaction and the tasks to be completed.
  - Disclose financial interest in a service, such as financial, title transfer and preparation services, insurance, construction, repair or inspection, at the time service is recommended or the first time the licensee learns that the service will be used.
- The following contractual terms are negotiable between the licensee and the consumer and must be addressed in an agreement/disclosure statement:
  - The duration of the licensee's employment, listing agreement or contract.
  - The licensee's fees or commission.
  - The scope of the licensee's activities or practices.
  - The broker's cooperation with and sharing of fees with other brokers.
- All sales agreements must contain the property's zoning classification except where the property is zoned solely or primarily to permit single family dwellings.
- The Real Estate Recovery Fund exists to reimburse any person who has obtained a final civil judgment against a Pennsylvania real estate licensee owing to fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in a real estate transaction and who has been unable to collect the judgment after exhausting all legal and equitable remedies. For complete details about the Fund, call (717) 783-3658.

Before you disclose any financial information to a licensee, be advised that unless you select a business relationship by signing a written agreement, the licensee is NOT representing you. A business relationship is NOT presumed.

NON-DISCLOSURE/CONFIDENTIALITY

This agreement will confirm that on this date, I received from Specialty Group certain pertinent and confidential information for my sole personal consideration or for consideration of a company or group, in which I have an interest.

The information and/or records about these businesses obtained by the Undersigned shall not be used for competitive use in any business, present or future. It is understood that information disclosed to others could cause a loss of business, and/or create injury in employee/employer relationships, as the information is extremely sensitive and confidential. The undersigned agrees to caution their attorney and tax advisor as to the need for confidentiality in handling the information that will be provided to them and to seek their help in maintaining the confidentiality agreement.

The undersigned or his representative further agrees, promises and pledges that neither it nor any principals, officers or agents shall circumvent Broker and shall not make any contact directly or indirectly through another broker or attempt to otherwise deal with any source being revealed by Broker. Should any circumvention or contact be made with the sources revealed by Broker, and should this contact or circumvention result in a sale, merger or exchange of the business/property in question, within Twelve (12) months from the date hereof, the undersigned agree to pay as consideration an amount equal to the actual commission due Broker, or twelve percent (12%) of the gross sales price, whichever is more.

The transaction, which you are contemplating, will involve a variety of financial statements and legal documents that bear significantly on your decisions. Our firm does not intend to represent that any of the financial statements or any other material or information supplied by the seller or its agent have been inspected, verified or approved by us.

The undersigned or his representative, by signing below, represents that he or she is not an agent or employee of the Internal Revenue Service or any local state or federal agency or department.

Sellers expect Specialty Group to use discretion and judgment in the release of sensitive business information. Before Specialty Group can share names, locations and detailed information with you, the prospective Buyer; you must agree to the following terms:

- You shall not make or distribute copies of any documents provided to you. In the event you elect not to purchase the Business or any business disclosed to you by Broker, you would promptly notify Broker and immediately return all information provided to you by Specialty Group.
- Unless specifically disclosed otherwise, you acknowledge that you first learned of the business's availability through communication with Specialty Group.
- You agree to conduct all communication with the businesses through Specialty Group. Under no circumstances should you directly contact the owners, employees, landlord, or suppliers of a business unless specifically directed to do so by Specialty Group. All correspondence, inquiries, offers to purchase, negotiations, and closings relating to the purchase of any business presented to me by Broker will be conducted exclusively through Broker.
- A breach of this Confidentiality Agreement could result in real financial and operational hardships for the business owner. If you breach this agreement, access to information about future business opportunities, in which you might have interest and which are represented by Specialty Group, will be denied to you. Furthermore, if you are found responsible for resulting damages to a business, you will be liable for losses incurred by the Seller and Specialty Group, to include legal fees and collection costs.

After you have reviewed this Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement, please sign this Agreement in the space provided below and agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions contained herein.
