Chaz & Odette up for sale after closing

Feb 17, 2017, 7:28am EST

Chaz & Odette, the chef-driven Baum Boulevard restaurant, has closed and its assets are up for sale.

Terri Sokoloff, a principal of Specialty Group, a Ross-based restaurant services firm, said a medical situation for the chef and a dissolution of the partnership resulted in the restaurant closing in January.

Specialty Group is marketing the liquor licenses and remaining fixtures and equipment of the restaurant for sale for a list price of $175,000. The real estate is not included.

The restaurant opened in late 2015 and lasted only a little more than year, even as Sokoloff noted it did get a mention from Zagat.

"My hope is that someone can have a chef-driven restaurant or they could have a neighborhood bar restaurants," she said. "It's very adaptable."

Before Chaz & Odette, the restaurant Toast operated in the location after a long run by the acclaimed Baum Vivant.
