A cafe in Bloomfield is currently up for sale.

The Azorean Cafe, located at 4715 Liberty Ave., is listed with Specialty Group, who is seeking a buyer for the space. The Azorean Cafe was started in 2017 by Chef Elsa Santos, and has served cuisine inspired by Santos' homeland, Azores, which is an an archipelago in the North Atlantic Ocean within one of the autonomous regions of Portugal. According to Specialty Group, Santos is relocating out of state and is looking for a buyer to either continue operating the cafe or utilize the space for a new venture.

According to Specialty Group's listing, the cafe offers about 2,000 square feet of space.

"Located in the heart of Bloomfield, it seats approximately 64 guests. It has a full kitchen built out to Chef Santos' requirements. The café is set up perfectly and is turnkey," Specialty Group's broker, Terri Sokoloff, said in a release. "We think what Chef Santos has created will transition well for a new operator and/or chef with the same or different vision. Bloomfield has garnered national attention for several James Beard nominated chefs."

Specialty Group said that until a buyer is secured, the Azorean Cafe will remain in operation, serving breakfast, lunch, juices and coffees.
